Doors Will Open On Fabulous Array Of Items For Sale

Everything from kitchen utensils, sporting equipment, jewelry, clothing for all ages, to elegant bridal finery will go on sale May 10 at 10 a.m. on the first floor of the new Torrance Hospital, on Lomita Blvd., between Hawthorne and Crenshaw Blvds.

This is the first benefit for the new Torrance Hospital staged by Las Levantadoras, newly-formed peninsula auxiliary, to support the new facility.

Both quality and variety of the merchandise to be offered is exceptionally high, according to Mrs. Lowell Dryden and Mrs. Richard Arnold, co-chairmen of the "Diamonds on Burlap Sale."

An invitational pre-sale cocktail party will be held Friday evening, May 9 at 6:30 p.m. also at the site of the new hospital. Mrs. Howard O. Coale, Jr., party chairman, and her committee promise a gay and lively evening to initiate the "Diamonds on Burlap Sale" starting at 10 a.m. the next morning.

The new Torrance Memorial Hospital, scheduled for completion in mid-1970, will have 250 beds initially with plans for expansion to 375 beds, to serve the entire South Bay.

Headdress Fantasy On May 7

Torrance Woman's Club will present its annual "Headdress Fantasy" luncheon on Wednesday, May 7, at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. A colorful Mexican theme has been selected for the event to which the public is invited, according to Mrs. Richard Dorothy, chairman.

Festivities will begin with a wine tasting party at 11:30 a.m. followed by a catered Mexican luncheon.

After the luncheon, members and guests will begin the parade of hats which they have created from artificial flowers, vegetables, and foliage. Mrs. H. F. Heinlein will serve as commentator.

Hats will be judged in three categories: theme, most beautiful, and most comical. Judging the hat show will be Mildred Smith, South Bay artist, and Merna Meyers, junior judge.
